2016 SEASON OUTLOOK

The University of Iowa soccer team won't be lacking for talent in 2016, but the Hawkeyes will be a young squad under third-year head coach Dave Dilanni.

The Hawkeyes have 22 letterwinners and six starters returning from a team that won seven games in 2015, but 19 of the 31 student-athletes on the 2016 roster are underclassmen.

Iowa's current sophomore class made a combined 49 starts in 2015 and the program's nine-player freshmen class enters the collegiate ranks as the 28th-best recruiting class nationally by BigSoccer.com.

FORWARDS

The Hawkeyes will rely on a veteran and a plethora of newcomers at the forward position in 2016. The team returns its top goal scorer in senior Bri Toelle and it welcomes a trio of freshmen looking to make a splash.

Toelle will be one of the team's most experienced players on the roster, as she enters her final season having appeared in 63 games. The Virginia native has scored 12 career goals, including a career-best five-goal, 15-point season as a junior.

Redshirt freshman Kaleigh Haus along with true freshmen Devin Burns and Olivia Fiegel will be counted on to complement Toelle on the attack. Haus is speedster from Des Moines, Iowa, who missed the 2015 season because of injury.

Haus played club soccer for the Iowa Rush, leading the team to three Iowa State Cup Championships, and she was twice the leading goal scorer in the Region II Tournament. Burns was an NSCAA All-American as a senior at Loyola Academy in Illinois, while Fiegel played club soccer for the Braddock Road Youth Soccer Club in Virginia, helping the team to a USYSA National League Championship.

Juniors Katherine Woodruff and Laura Lainson will give the Hawkeyes depth and experience at the forward position, while redshirt sophomore Rose Ripslinger, one of the top players in the history of Iowa high school soccer, is two years removed from knee surgery.

MIDFIELDERS

The Hawkeyes will be experienced in the midfield, returning two starters and getting a third experienced player back following a redshirt season.

Junior Karly Stuenkel, Iowa's 2016 Most Valuable Offensive Player, is back after a break-through sophomore season. The St. Charles, Illinois, native tied for the team lead with five goals -- two coming in Big Ten play -- and she had two assists for 12 points.

Sophomore Morgan Kemerling returns after starting 15 games as a true freshman, and the Hawkeyes get redshirt junior Natalie Krygier back into the fold. The Michigan native was Iowa's 2014 Newcomer of the Year after starting 20 games, scoring three goals, and tallying four assists.

Senior Tory Harman is another experienced option after logging a career-high 648 minutes in 16 contests as a junior. The Cedar Rapids, Iowa, native scored one goal -- a game-winner to down Iowa State in the 2015 Iowa Corn Cy-Hawk Series matchup.

BRI TOELLE

KARLY STUENKEL

Sophomores Jenna Kentgen, Chelsey Henry, and Elizabeth Stam will give Iowa depth in the midfield. Fellow sophomore Aubree Larson will miss the 2016 season because of injury.

Kentgen's first two seasons at Iowa have been injury-plagued; she missed all of 2014 because of injury before being limited to seven games last season. Larson played in 15 games in 2015, Henry is working her way back from an injury suffered during the spring season, while Stam appeared in three games as a freshman.

Three newcomers -- Isabella Blackman, Sydney Blitchok, and Natalie Winters -- will be in the thick of things for playing time in the midfield.

Winters is a member of the USA Women's National Team, competing in six U18 National Team Camps, while Blackman was a two-time team Most Valuable Player at Bettendorf (Iowa) High School, earning all-state, all-conference, and all-area honors. Blitchok was Michigan's Ms. Soccer as a senior and was a two-time first-team all-state selection.

DEFENDERS

The Hawkeyes' back four will be the team's strength with three starters returning and a fourth that has 29 career games under her belt.

Senior Amanda Lulek is the most experienced player on the Iowa roster. The Illinois native is a three-year starter, appearing in 57 career games with 51 starts.

Junior Rachele Armand started 16 games -- she missed two games because of injury -- during her first season as a Hawkeye after transferring from Louisville. The Illinois native was tabbed as Iowa's Newcomer of the Year and Co-Defensive Most Valuable Player after logging 1,327 minutes on a defense that posted six shutouts.

Sophomore Karsen Rauch is the third returning starter having had a productive first season. The Indiana native competed in 16 games and started 14 contests as a true freshman.

AMANDA LULEK

Redshirt junior Corey Burns returns after missing the final 15 games because of injury in 2015. Burns was one of the team's top defenders before suffering the injury; she started all 20 games as a sophomore, scoring two goals to go along with a team-high seven assists.

Sophomores Madeline Crowdy, Hannah Brobst, and Abbey Toureene along with freshmen Leah Moss and Hannah Drkulec will give Dilanni options on the back line. Sophomore Morgan Kemerling and freshman Natalie Winters could also figure into the equation at the defender position.

GOALKEEPERS

It will be no small task for the Iowa's four goalkeepers, who will be charged with the task of replacing Hannah Clark in goal for the 2016 season. Clark finished her career as the school record holder in wins (36) and shutouts (26) and was third all-time in saves (321). Exhibition

Sophomore Emma Rigby is the team's most experienced returnee, but her time in between the posts is limited. Rigby saw action in two games as a freshman, where she made two saves in 33 minutes.

Junior Tina Cardamone is the eldest goalkeeper on the roster, but she hasn't seen any game action in her first two seasons. Two freshmen -- Claire Graves and Cora Meyers -- will immediately vie for the position.

Graves was a three-time all-state, all-district, and all-county selection at Noblesville (Indiana) High School, where she was a TeamSnap All-Mideast Region selection as a senior. She won 42 career games, including 12 as a senior. Meyers was a three-time all-state and four-time all-conference selection at Pleasant Valley (Iowa) High School. She led her team to the first outright MAC title as a senior.

INDOOR PRACTICE FACILITY

IOWA TURF INDOOR FACILITY

IOWA SOCCER COMPLEX

The Iowa Soccer Complex has been the home of Hawkeye soccer for 12 years. The complex is equipped with lights, grandstands, and an enclosed press box. The field is also fenced in and contains a professional irrigation and drainage system, making the natural grass venue one of the best collegiate soccer facilities in the nation.

IOWA SOCCER LOCKER ROOM

The University of Iowa soccer team's main locker room facility is on the west campus in the Hawkeye Tennis and Recreation Center in close proximity to the Iowa Soccer Complex and the adjacent practice facility. The facility includes individual wooden lockers for each Hawkeye student-athlete and a player's lounge area.

The soccer locker room is attached to the Iowa Turf indoor practice facility, where the Hawkeyes practice in inclement weather.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING
OLYMPIC SPORTS

CARVER-HAWKEYE ARENA WEIGHT ROOM FACILITY

The University of Iowa Olympic Strength and Conditioning Department's main facility opened in August, 2011. This 10,000-square foot space is home to many state-of-the-art technologies used in monitoring student-athlete performances, including Catapult GPS, Gymaware, Omegawave, and Tensiomyography.

Hawkeye student-athletes also have access to refueling stations throughout the year. The department employs a Registered Dietician, who oversees the sports nutrition program. For more information on Iowa's sports nutrition program

DAVE DIANNI
HEAD COACH
THIRD SEASON

Dave Dianni is entering his third season as head coach for the University of Iowa women's soccer program. Dianni was tabbed as the fifth coach in program history on May 17, 2014, coming to the UI following an 11-year head coaching stint at Grand Valley State.

Dianni, a native of Ontario, Canada, has amassed a 242-35-20 (.843) career record and guided three Grand Valley State teams to three NCAA Division II national championships, nine-consecutive Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletics Conference (GLIAC) titles, seven Final Four appearances in eight seasons, 11-straight NCAA Tournament berths, while coaching 21 All-Americans.

Dianni's .895 winning percentage was tops in NCAA Division II history and his current .843 winning percentage is third-highest amongst all coaches in any division.

In his second season in Iowa City, Dianni led the Hawkeyes to a 7-10-1 overall record. Senior Hannah Clark led the Big Ten in saves (105), saves per game (5.83), and tied for sixth in shutouts (six). Clark ended her career as the winningest goalkeeper in program history (36 victories) and was tops in the record books in career shutouts (26) and third in career saves (321).

Dianni's squad earned the NSCAA Ethics and Sportsmanship Award and six student-athletes garnered Academic All-Big Ten recognition.

On the recruiting front, Dianni's 2016 class garnered national recognition, being ranked 28th by BigSoccer.com.

In his first season in Iowa City, Dianni led the Hawkeyes to a 14-7-1 overall and a 7-5-1 Big Ten record to notch the program's third top-five league finish since 2011. The seven Big Ten victories tied the program record for Big Ten wins in a single season and the 14 wins were the second-most in school history.

After entering the Big Ten Tournament as the No. 5 seed, Iowa posted victories over No. 23 Rutgers and Northwestern to advance to the tournament championship game for a second straight season. Two seniors -- Cloe Lacasse and Melanie Pickert -- capped their Hawkeye careers with first-team All-Big Ten and first-team all-region honors. They were the first pair in school history to earn first-team all-conference honors in the same season and the first two players to garner first-team all-region recognition.

The Hawkeyes finished 2014 with a school-record 14 shutouts in 22 games to rank 20th nationally with a .545 shutout percentage. Iowa's defense also was in the top-35 in the country in saves percentage (31st, .838) and goals against average (35th, .754).

Academically, the Hawkeyes garnered the NSCAA Team Academic Award for an eighth straight season and nine soccer student-athletes garnered Academic All-Big Ten honors. Seniors Caitlin Brown and Emily Scott were also received Scholar All-Region recognition.

In his final season at Grand Valley State, Dianni guided the Lakers to their third national title in five seasons and was named the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) Coach of the Year for a third time. Grand Valley scored the second-most goals in program history (88), matched a program-high with 21 shutouts en route to winning the most games in school history. The team finished 24-0-1, claiming both the GLIAC regular season and tournament titles.

The Lakers opened the season with 13-straight shutouts, which matched the second-longest streak in Division II history, and five student-athletes garnered All-America recognition at season's end.

Dilanni led the Lakers to a 22-0-4 record in 2009 en route to his first national championship before winning a second-straight title in 2010. He was honored as the CaptainU Division II Women's Soccer Coach of the Year in 2009, and he coached the Division II National Player of the Year honoree in each season (Irie Dennis, 2009; Jenna Wenglinski, 2010).

Dilanni took over the Laker program in 2003 and swiftly guided Grand Valley State to a then-school best record of 17-2-2 to earn the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament berth. In year three, Dilanni led the Lakers to their first conference and NCAA Great Lakes Regional Championship, finishing 19-3 overall, and his team finished eighth in the national poll.

By year four, Dilanni led Grand Valley State to the school's first NCAA Division II National Championship game, finishing 19-2-1 overall. A year later, the Lakers made a second-straight NCAA Final Four appearance, posting a 17-0-0 mark in the regular season before finishing 21-1-1 overall.

Dilanni joined Grand Valley State after a seven-year run as head coach of the Jackson Lumen Christi High School women's soccer team. He also spent three years as an assistant coach at Hillsdale College, where he helped begin the men's and women's soccer programs.

Dilanni spent seven years working with the Olympic Development Program in Michigan, training and developing the highest level of soccer in the state. He coached the team to four Region 2 and four ODP national championships.

Dilanni, a USSF B-licensed coach, earned his associate's degree from Seneca College in 1993 and his bachelor's degree from Spring Arbor University in 1997. He and his wife, Kristy, have two daughters, Karissa and Kelsey.

ERICA DEMERS ASSISTANT COACH THIRD SEASON

Erica Demers is in her third season as an assistant coach with the University of Iowa soccer program.

During the 2015 season, Demers helped lead the Hawkeyes to a 7-10-1 overall record. Senior Hannah Clark led the Big Ten in saves (105), saves per game (5.83), and tied for sixth in shutouts (six). Clark ended her career as the winningest goalkeeper in program history (36 victories) and was tops in the record books in career shutouts (26) and third in career saves (321).

The Hawkeyes earned the NSCAA Ethics and Sportsmanship Award and six student-athletes garnered Academic All-Big Ten recognition.

In her first season in Iowa City, Demers helped lead the Hawkeyes to a 14-7-1 overall and a 7-5-1 Big Ten record to notch the program's third top-five league finish since 2011. The seven Big Ten victories tied the program record for Big Ten wins in a single season and the 14 wins were the second-most in school history.

After entering the Big Ten Tournament as the No. 5 seed, Iowa posted victories over No. 23 Rutgers and Northwestern to advance to the tournament championship game for a second straight season. Two seniors -- Cloe Lacasse and Melanie Pickert -- capped their Hawkeye careers with first-team All-Big Ten and first-team all-region honors. They were the first pair in school history to earn first-team all-conference honors in the same season and the first two players to garner first-team all-region recognition.

Demers joined the UI program after spending the nine seasons with UI head coach Dave Dilanni at Grand Valley State, the final two as associate head coach. She helped the Lakers post a 189-12-17 record, capture three NCAA Division II national titles, win nine-straight GLIAC championships, and nine NCAA regional championships.

Under Demers' offensive tutelage, Grand Valley State became one of the best offensive programs in the nation. The team set program scoring records in six-straight seasons, including a school-best 92 goals in 2010.

Demers was instrumental in the development of All-America forward Katy Tafler, who holds the top spot in the GVSU record books with 269 points (114 goals, 41 assists) -- a total that ranks third in NCAA history. She also coached five GLIAC Offensive Player of the Year selections.

In addition to her coaching duties, Demers served as the school's recruiting coordinator, camps coordinator and instructor, strength and conditioning coach, and fundraising director. She also was instrumental in the team's academic success, as she coached two Academic All-American of the Year honorees, eight Academic All-Americans, one Elite 88 Award winner and more than 40 athletes to GLIAC All-Academic honors during her tenure.

Demers began her coaching career at The Citadel, where she served one season as a graduate assistant.

As a student-athlete, Demers played four years of Division I soccer at Oakland University, where she led the Grizzlies to four-straight conference tournament titles and three-straight NCAA Tournament appearances. She was a two-time first-team Mid-Continent Conference selection and was Mid-Con Player of the Year in 2002. She ended her career with 55 points on 15 goals and 25 assists.

Demers played for the Canadian U-21 National Team Pool and was part of the Canadian National Championship team in 2000. In 1997-98, she played for the National Training Centre team and was a member of the Ontario Provincial Team for five years.

The Welland, Ontario, Canada, native graduated from Oakland with a bachelor of science in health science in 2004 and earned her master's degree in education from Grand Valley State in 2009.

NATE CASTILLO
INTERIM
ASSISTANT COACH
1ST SEASON

Nate Castillo is in his first season as interim assistant coach with the University of Iowa soccer program.

Castillo joined the program in August, 2016, to work with the Hawkeye goalkeepers after serving as the head junior varsity and assistant varsity soccer coach at Iowa City High School. He has also worked as an Iowa Soccer Club coach since 2007.

For a two-year stretch from 2011-13, Castillo coached collegiate soccer at Mount Mercy University in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. He also assisted at Solon High School from 2010-12, where he was a member of the staff that was tabbed as the WaMaC Conference Coaching Staff of the Year.

The North Liberty, Iowa, native graduated from the University of Iowa with a bachelor's degree in business administration with an entrepreneurial track in May, 2012. He has his USA Soccer National D License, is a US Soccer National D Course instructor, and a US Soccer certified referee.

CHRIS EARLY
1ST SEASON

University of Iowa graduate Chris Early is in his first season as volunteer assistant coach with the Hawkeyes' women's soccer program.

Early joined the UI after spending the 2015 season as an assistant coach at Northwestern State University. The Lady Demons scored 33 goals during Early's lone season with the program -- the most since 2009 -- and he coached two players to All-Southland Conference honors.

During his year-long stint in Natchitoches, Louisiana, Early also served as an assistant for the Louisiana Soccer Association, working with the girls Olympic Development Program. He also started Northwestern State men's soccer club team and coached various youth clubs in the area and state.

Before heading south, Early spent a spring as an assistant coach at NCAA Division III Bethel (Minn.) University, and he has extensive experience coaching at the youth level.

After graduating high school, Early was the head coach for the Sporting St. Croix Soccer Club (U11 Select Boys) while serving as an assistant for the U18 Academy Boys (Minnesota State Cup champions) and the U17 Select Girls.

Early, who played one season for San Bernadino Valley College until a knee injury ended his competitive college career, also played and coached the University of Iowa's men's club soccer team in 2013 and 2014 and was a camp counselor and practice player for the Hawkeyes under former head coach Ron Rainey in 2012.

Early also served as a staff coach and technical skills trainer for the Iowa City Alliance Soccer Club U9-U18 boys and girls teams.

The Stillwater, Minnesota, native graduated from the University of Iowa with a bachelor's degree in recreation and sport management in December, 2012.

"I chose to attend the University of Iowa because it was a very familiar place for me since it is so close to home. I love the campus and the atmosphere here. Growing up as a Hawkeye fan helped give Iowa the upper hand over other schools, I couldn't see myself being anything but a Hawkeye. Academically, I want to pursue a degree in the sciences, and Iowa is the perfect place to do that as well."

ROSE RIPSINGER

Redshirt Sophomore • Davenport, Iowa

"After visiting various campuses across the country, Iowa felt comfortable for me because of the small town feel. Coming from the East Coast and never experiencing a small town, it felt safe and was an environment where I knew I would excel, not only on the field, but in the classroom. While exploring the Iowa campus, I fell in love with the athletic facilities and all the soccer team had to offer. It was everything I had imagined a collegiate lifestyle to be."

BRI TOELLE

Senior • Gainesville, Va.

"I chose the University of Iowa because it has been my dream since I was little to represent the Hawkeyes. The atmosphere of the campus and the passion of the students is amazing. I wouldn't have wanted to play for any other soccer team at the collegiate level. As a student, I am wanting to continue my education within the medical field. The well-respected medical program at Iowa only solidified my decision even more."

KALEIGH HAUS

Redshirt Freshman • Des Moines, Iowa

"I was looking for a school that would challenge me both academically and athletically, and Iowa was the perfect match. My entire family went there, so I grew up a big Hawkeye fan. After visiting, I fell in love with the campus, community, and amazing sport facilities. Having great academics, a great athletic community, and being in the Big Ten, Iowa has the entire package."

COREY BURNS

Redshirt Junior • Green Oaks, Ill.

"I chose to attend the University of Iowa because I loved the school as a whole. I could tell there was the perfect mix of school, soccer, and social life offered at this campus. The atmosphere of the school is awesome and that's something that stood out to me right away. I really liked the sports facilities -- everything is very nice and new."

NATALIE KRYGIER

Redshirt Junior • Novi, Mich.

"I chose the University of Iowa because it felt like a home away from home. Friendly people fill the streets and I love the feeling of downtown Iowa City. Not only does Iowa provide a positive environment, it also provides a level of education that will help me further my academic career."

ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

A record-setting, perfect regular season, which included a Big Ten West Division title for the Hawkeye football team, set the tone for a successful 2015-16 for the University of Iowa Athletics Department, as Gary Barta completed his first decade as the UI's Director of Athletics.

As Barta enters his 11th year as the leader of Hawkeye athletics, he does so with a five-year contract extension and recognition as the 2015-16 Under Armour Athletics Director of the Year, presented by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA).

In the past year, Iowa athletics staff, coaches, and, most importantly, Hawkeye student-athletes, have continued to raise the bar in their daily approach to: Win. Graduate. Do it Right. There is tremendous momentum surrounding the entire athletics program in all three areas.

The Hawkeye football team earned a spot in the Big Ten Conference Championship game after an undefeated regular season and made its sixth Rose Bowl appearance. The Iowa men's and women's basketball teams advanced to postseason play, and the Iowa wrestling program was once again in the thick of the battle for the national title.

UI student-athletes continued to attack their work in the classroom—the "Graduate" leg of the Hawkeyes' three-legged stool. All of Iowa's 24 sports teams again exceeded the NCAA's Annual Progress Report while holding steady their record, established a year ago, with a 89 percent Graduation Success Rate (GSR). The average grade point average for all student-athletes reached an impressive 3.0.

The "Do it Right" column was filled with success as well. Under Barta's leadership, the Hawkeyes continued their significant service and contribution to the greater Iowa City area and beyond, taking a leadership position in matters related to student-athlete welfare. Iowa remains among the handful of intercollegiate athletics programs nationally that successfully maintains its status as 100 percent self-supporting.

Iowa's "Wins" also occurred at the turnstiles, where the Iowa wrestling program once again led the nation in home attendance. Iowa was one of just five programs in the country to rank in the top 25 in home attendance for football, women's basketball, and men's basketball. When the Hawkeye baseball team reached the Big Ten Tournament championship game, more than 10,000 Hawkeye fans were in Omaha to cheer on the Hawkeyes on a Sunday afternoon.

While the record-setting performance by the football team led the way in 2015-16, a number of other Hawkeye athletics teams also enjoyed outstanding success:

- The 2016 Rose Bowl marked Iowa's 13th postseason bowl game under the leadership of Kirk Ferentz and its ninth January bowl event. Junior defensive back Desmond King earned unanimous consensus All-America honors while winning the Jim Thorpe Trophy and was recognized as the Tatum Woodson Big Ten Defensive Back of the Year. He is Iowa's 23rd consensus All-American. Fifteen Hawkeye players earned All-Big Ten recognition.

- Lisa Bluder's women's basketball team advanced to postseason play for the ninth straight season while fielding a very young team comprised mainly of underclassmen. Three Hawkeyes earned All-Big Ten honors, six earned Academic All-Big Ten recognition, and junior Ally Disterhoft garnered Academic All-America honors for the second straight year.

- The Iowa men's basketball team advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the third straight season, winning its opening game for the second consecutive year before a second round loss to the eventual national champion, Villanova. Coach Fran McCaffery's team was ranked as high as third in the nation while earning a second straight third-place finish in the Big Ten Conference. Two Hawkeyes earned All-Big Ten honors, including first-team selection Jarod Uthoff.

- Jarrod Uthoff (men's basketball) and Ally Disterhoft (women's basketball), were named Academic All-Americans of the Year for their respective sports. Iowa became the first Division I program to claim both the male and female basketball recipients of the award in the same season. Uthoff is the first Iowa men's basketball student-athlete to earn both consensus All-America and Academic All-America honors.

- Tom Brands' Iowa wrestling squad finished second in the Big Ten and fifth at the NCAA Championships. The Hawkeyes crowned two Big Ten individual champions, featured three NCAA finalists, and had six All-Americans. Iowa wrestling set a national dual meet attendance record as 42,287 were on hand to see the Hawkeyes hand top-ranked Oklahoma State an 18-16 defeat in Kinnick Stadium to open the season.

- Iowa baseball made another late season charge under coach Rick Heller, reaching the Big Ten Tournament title game for the first time since 2010. Only a one-run loss in the championship game kept the Hawkeyes from a second straight NCAA Regional appearance. Two Hawkeyes earned first-team All-Big Ten honors and three players were selected in the 2016 Major League Baseball Draft, moving the three-year total to 11 under Heller—the most for the program since 1991-93.

- Coach Megan Menzel's women's golf program was represented in the national tournament as senior Amy Ihm competed as an individual after earning first-team All-Big Ten honors. Ihm became the first UI women's golfer to compete in NCAA postseason competition since 1990 and just the second in program history.

- The UI's men's golf team, under the direction of second-year head coach Tyler Stith, competed in its eighth straight NCAA Tournament. The Hawkeyes placed second in the Big Ten Championships as three Hawkeyes—juniors Carson Schaake and Raymond Knoll, along with true freshman Matthew Walker—earned all-tournament recognition.

- Larissa Libby's GymHawks advanced to the NCAA Regionals for the seventh time in the last eight seasons, hosting the event in Carver-Hawkeye Arena in 2016. Iowa recorded dual meet wins over five conference foes, including three Big Ten teams who were nationally ranked at the time. Two Hawkeyes were named to the All-Championship team, with Mollie Drenth representing Iowa as an individual competitor at the NCAA Championships. Drenth, Iowa's first NCAA Championships qualifier since 2011, placed third on beam at the NCAA Championship, earning first-team All-America accolades. She is the program's first All-American since 2004.

- JD Reive's UI men's gymnastics squad placed fifth at the Big Ten Championships and saw Matt Loochtan garner first-team All-Big Ten recognition. The Hawkeyes fell short of making team finals at the NCAA Championships, but saw five student-athletes advance to individual event finals. The youthful roster excelled in the classroom, tying a school record with nine Academic All-Big Ten selections. Senior Jack Boyle was also named a finalist for the Nissen-Emery Award, an award given to the country's most outstanding senior gymnast in the gym and in the classroom.

- Joey Woody's second season as head coach of the UI's men's and women's track and field teams resulted in a record number of performers advancing to the NCAA Outdoor Championships. A total of 15 Hawkeyes advanced to the national championships, including Big Ten champions Briana Guillory (200 meters), Aaron Mallett (110 meter hurdles), men's 400-meter relay, and women's 1,600-meter relay.

- The Iowa men's and women's swimming and diving teams both tallied top-40 finishes at the NCAA Championships under head coach Marc Long. The program had two student-athletes—junior Emma Sougstad (100 breast) and senior Roman Trussov (100 breast, 200 breast)—garner three All-America distinctions. Ten student-athletes were named CSCAA Scholar All-Americans and 35 earned Academic All-Big Ten recognition.

- Under third-year head coach Andrew Carter, the Iowa rowing program continued to make significant strides forward. The Hawkeyes were represented in the top-20 national rankings for the first time in six seasons. The squad placed fifth in the Big Ten Championships with 95 points, its highest championship point total since 2009. Senior Beth Baustian earned second-team Pocock All-America accolades, becoming the fourth All-American in program history and the second in the last three seasons. The Hawkeyes excelled off the water with 20 Academic All-Big Ten selections, the most for the program since 2009, and five Collegiate Rowing Coaches Association Scholar Athletes.

- Under second-year head coach Bond Shymansky, the UI volleyball team compiled a 10-3 record in nonconference action—the best overall start for the program since 2006 (11-1). The Hawkeyes won eight straight matches from Sept. 6-19, including a 3-1 victory over Iowa State -- Iowa's first win over the Cyclones since 1997 -- and a 3-1 win over No. 25 Texas A&M.

In October 2015, the NCAA reported that Iowa's student-athletes had tied the record set the previous year by posting a Graduation Success Rate (GSR) score of 89 percent. That mark ranked six points better than the national average.

The NCAA also noted the UI had posted a federal graduation rate of 71 percent. This was also a record, three points better than the national average—and tops the three State of Iowa Board of Regents' institutions.

Last May, the NCAA reported that all 24 of Iowa's sports programs were comfortably above the Academic Progress Rate (APR) threshold. The NCAA also singled out the UI's volleyball, men's golf, and women's swimming and diving for APR scores that ranked in the top 10 percent of their peer group. These three teams have each registered a perfect score of 1,000 in each of the past four years.

Along with Uthoff and Disterhoft earning Academic All-American of the Year accolades, the Hawkeyes also boasted Academic All-Americans in football (senior defensive back Jordan Lomax) and wrestling (senior Nathan Burak). In addition, 167 UI student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten recognitions throughout the year, and wrestler Alex Meyer earned academic recognition from the National Wrestling coaches Association (NWCA).

"Doing it Right" for Barta and the more than 225 staff of the UI Athletics Department is a charge that encompasses a long and varied list of responsibilities, including maintaining the department's status as one of a handful of intercollegiate athletics programs nationally that successfully operates its sports programs and auxiliary enterprises in a fiscally responsible manner and without any institutional or taxpayer financial support. The UI provides a superior experience for the more than 650 talented student-athletes who participate in the program annually and the more than one million friends and fans of the UI who attend Hawkeye events on the UI campus while being responsible and productive citizens of the greater Iowa City and University of Iowa community.

In 2016-17, Barta will be responsible for an annual operating budget that will exceed $100 million for the first time, with 100 percent of the revenue side of that budget generated by the UI Athletics Department. The majority of that revenue comes as a result of success in traditional revenue sources: income as a result of membership in the Big Ten Conference (including television), sales of tickets to athletic events on the UI campus, and donations to the National I-Club.

The National I-Club donations has grown into a critical piece of the financial pie managed by Barta, exemplified by continued years of outright fundraising support exceeding $26 million annually. That philanthropic support has been critical to the long list of athletics facilities that have either been built or renovated during Barta's first 10 years on campus.

That list includes:

- Construction of the recently-completed $55 million Stew and LeNore Hansen Football Performance Center
- $47 million revitalization of Carver-Hawkeye Arena
- Installation of a new video wall and video ribbon board at Kinnick Stadium
- Installation of a new video scoreboard and playing surface at Duane Banks Field
- Partnered in construction of a new indoor turf facility that accommodates Olympic sports like baseball, softball, and soccer.
- Renovation of the practice space inside the UI Fieldhouse for the men's and women's gymnastics teams
- Construction of the Hoak Family Golf Facility for the men's and women's golf programs
- Turf replacement at Grant Field, the home of Iowa's nationally ranked field hockey program
- Resurfacing of the Klotz Tennis Center courts
- Installation of artificial turf on the outdoor football practice fields, matching the playing surface of Kinnick Stadium

Providing the resources for UI student-athletes and coaches to be successful is a priority for Barta and his senior management team. That process includes providing state-of-the-art facilities, which is why Barta continues to work closely with institutional leadership on the finalization of a comprehensive master plan for the facilities available to the Hawkeyes.

Additional facility projects on the horizon include:

- Center-hung videoboards in Carver-Hawkeye Arena, along with new sound and lighting systems being installed this summer
- A north end zone project at Kinnick Stadium that will provide additional premium seating options and additional upgrades
- Installation of a new banked track in the UI Recreation Building, home of UI indoor track programs
- Renovations to the Gerdin Athletics Learning Center, home to the UI's Athletic Student Services staff
- Stadium upgrades to the baseball (Duane Banks Field) and softball (Bob Pearl Field) facilities
- A new clubhouse at the UI's Finkbine Golf Course
- Additional olympic sport improvements for soccer, gymnastics, volleyball, and other teams.

Iowa's contributions to the greater Iowa City community go far beyond the multi-million dollars of economic impact generated as a result of the staging of hundreds of annual regular season, postseason, and special events annually. Barta and UI student-athletes, coaches, and staff are also active citizens, logging thousands of hours of community service and spearheading efforts to support a wide variety of causes ranging from construction of the UI's new Children's Hospital, to the UI's extremely successful Dance Marathon, to involvement with Coaches vs. Cancer.

Iowa football has been involved with the Children's Hospital "Kid Captain" program for 10 years. UI athletics teamed with the UI Alumni Association on the "Black and Gold Friday" outreach program; partnered with the College Football Playoff Foundation on "Extra Yard for (K-12) Teachers" program; and partnered with select colleges on the staging of the first "Academic Day" as part of Homecoming in 2015.

Iowa's annual "Day of Caring" serves as the foundation upon which all these outreach activities rest. Now in its 21st year of existence, the Day of Caring happens each April and typically involves representatives of most, if not all, of Iowa's sports programs who provide a wide variety of assistance to an equally-wide variety of not-for-profit organizations that service the greater Iowa City community.

"Doing it Right" also encompasses efforts aimed at improving the student-athlete experience. The UI Athletics Department invested more than $1.7 million directly into food cost for its student-athletes in 2014-15 in response to NCAA legislation aimed at providing a higher quality student-athlete experience. That commitment will continue annually and is complemented by increases to the value of the scholarships awarded the UI's student-athletes as part of the NCAA's effort to fully address cost of attendance.

Barta's involvement in the UI campus and the greater Iowa City community extends beyond his position as Director of the UI's Intercollegiate Athletics programs. He is a member of the President's Cabinet, comprised of vice presidents and other campus leaders that provide counsel to the UI's president.

Barta represents the UI and the Hawkeyes at the conference and national level as a member of the Rose Bowl Management Committee. During his tenure, he has participated in the creation and implementation of the Big Ten Network (BTN), the expansion of the Big Ten Conference and realignment of athletics conferences.

Barta remains active on the conference and NCAA level. He is involved in committee work with NCAA Football, the Division IA Athletic Directors Association, and is an ongoing participant in the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA).

Barta is also involved in a variety of community groups, including the United Way of Johnson and Washington Counties and the Partnership for Alcohol Safety, a joint effort between UI campus leaders and the city of Iowa City.

Barta often suggests to his staff that "Hope is not a strategy," which is why the Department has completed a comprehensive review and rewriting of the strategic plan for the UI Athletics Department and continues to work with the UI's leadership on a long-term financial plan.

As the Director of Athletics at the University of Wyoming for three years, seven different Wyoming coaches were named Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year. He also spearheaded a fundraising effort that netted the Cowboy athletics program $11 million in private support and $11 million in matching state funds.

As the senior associate athletics director at the University of Washington, he directed the "Campaign for the Student-Athlete," was a participant in the design, construction and/or renovation of several Washington athletics facilities, including Bank of America Arena and the Dempsey Indoor Practice Facility. In addition to almost doubling the amount of annual private support received by Washington, Barta also managed the department's external relations division, a task that included managing corporate sponsorship and radio contracts.

His responsibilities at Washington expanded over time to include hiring coaching and administrative staff, and the day-to-day oversight of several Huskie sport teams.

The roots of his development experience extend to his first two positions: director of development at his alma mater, North Dakota State University, and director of athletics development and external relations at the University of Northern Iowa.

Barta earned a bachelor of science degree in mass communication and broadcast journalism from North Dakota State in 1987. He was an option quarterback for Bison football squads that won the Division II NCAA National Championship in 1983, 1985, and 1986.

Barta, and his wife, Connie, have a son, Luke (18), and a daughter, Madison (15). He was born Sept. 4, 1963, in Minneapolis.

IOWA CONTINUES TO BUILD FOR SUCCESS

The UI Department of Athletics is under the direction of Gary Barta and is regarded as one of the top intercollegiate programs in the nation. Once again, the Hawkeyes enjoyed success both athletically and academically in 2015-16.

Academically, the UI's federal graduation rate of 78 percent (for student-athletes who enrolled in the fall of 2008), meaning UI student-athletes have graduated at a rate of 70 percent or better in five straight years. For the sixth consecutive year, all 24 of Iowa's teams exceeded the Academic Progress Rate (APR) benchmark and the program posted a record 89 percent in the NCAA's "Graduation Success Rate." That mark tied a school record. It is the 11th time in 12 years of the GSR's existence that Iowa's student-athletes scored 80 percent or better.

Seven UI teams scored a perfect 100 on their GSR: Men's basketball, field hockey, men's golf, women's golf, men's tennis, field hockey, women's golf, women's tennis, and volleyball. All counted, the GSR for 17 of Iowa's 24 teams was better than the national average among its peer sport group.

Athletically, Hawkeye teams enjoyed another outstanding year in 2015-16, as a significant number of Iowa's 24 programs reached postseason play. The Iowa football team played in the 2016 Rose Bowl Game, the UI men's basketball team advanced to second round of the NCAA Tournament for a second straight year, the women's basketball team advanced to the postseason for a ninth consecutive season, the wrestling team had three NCAA finalists en route to a fifth place finish at the NCAA Championships, the women's gymnastics team advanced to NCAA Regionals for the seventh time in eight seasons and the men's golf team qualified for NAAs for an eighth straight year.

Facilities upgrades remain at the forefront with Carver-Hawkeye Arena being the latest facility receiving an upgrade with new LED video technology being installed by Daktronics. The new four-sided centerhung video system is the centerpiece of the installation, while four auxiliary displays -- two on each end of the arena -- will also be installed. The Hawkeye Tennis and Recreation Center installed PlaySight Smart Court Technology -- a video component with live streaming capabilities, transforming the HTRC into a fully interactive practice and competition venue.

The gymnastics practice venues inside the UI Fieldhouse were completely renovated more than doubling the training space for the men's and women's programs, and a second indoor practice facility was constructed on the west campus -- Iowa Turf -- for sports like baseball, softball, and soccer in a partnership with recreation services.

Renovations continue with a north end zone project at Kinnick Stadium on the horizon, a new banked track in the UI Recreation Building, a new clubhouse at Finkbine Golf Course, and a renovation to the Gerdin Athletics Learning Center -- the home to the UI's Athletic Student Services.

IOWA FOOTBALL

The Iowa football team went 12-0 during the regular season en route to the Big Ten West Division title and played in the 2016 Rose Bowl Game. Junior defensive back Desmond King earned consensus All-America honors while winning the Jim Thorpe Trophy and being recognized as the Tatum Woodson Big Ten Defensive Back of the Year.

IOWA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

UI head coach Lisa Bluder led the women's basketball team to the postseason for a ninth consecutive season. Three Hawkeyes earned All-Big Ten honors, six were Academic All-Big Ten selections, and junior Ally Disterhoft garnered Academic All-America honors for the second straight year and was the Academic All-American of the Year.

IOWA WRESTLING

The Hawkeyes finished the 2015-16 season as the Big Ten team runner-up and finished fifth at the NCAA Championships. Iowa crowned two Big Ten individual champions, featured three NCAA finalists, and had six All-Americans. The program set a national dual meet attendance record when 42,287 were on hand to see the Hawkeyes defeat top-ranked Oklahoma State in Kinnick Stadium to open the season.

IOWA MEN'S BASKETBALL

Sixth-year head coach Fran McCaffery led the men's basketball team to the NCAA Tournament for a third straight season, winning its opening game for a second consecutive year before a second round loss to eventual NCAA champion, Villanova. The Hawkeyes were ranked as high as No. 3 in the nation while earning a third-place Big Ten finish. Two players earned All-Big Ten recognition.

IOWA WOMEN'S GYMNASTICS

The Gymhawks advanced to NCAA Regionals for the seventh time in the last eight seasons, hosting the event in Carver-Hawkeye Arena in 2016. Mollie Drenth represented the program at the NCAA Championships where she earned first-team All-America honors -- Iowa's first All-American since 2004.

IOWA MEN'S & WOMEN'S GOLF

Head coach Tyler Stith led the Hawkeyes to their eighth straight NCAA Regional appearance in 2016 and Iowa was the team runner-up at the Big Ten Championships. Senior Army Ihm qualified individually for the NCAA Tournament, becoming the first UI women's golfer to compete in NCAA postseason competition since 1990 and just the second in program history.

IOWA TRACK & FIELD

The Hawkeyes had a record number of NCAA performers at the 2016 NCAA Championships with 15 student-athletes advancing to Eugene, Oregon. Iowa crowned Big Ten champions in four events, including the men's 400-meter relay and women's 1,600-meter relay.

-U.S. News & World Report's America's Best Graduate Schools, 2015

With over 31,000 students in a city of roughly 75,000, UI offers a different atmosphere than many other universities in the Big Ten or the Midwest.

The unemployment rate in Iowa City (2.7 %) ranks among the nations' lowest. (May, 2015).

Building on a rich tradition of excellence and innovation, the University of Iowa is educating more than 30,000 students annually, preparing them for success immediately following graduation, as well as continued achievements throughout their lives.

The University of Iowa offers more than 100 areas of undergraduate and graduate study, including seven professional degree programs, through its 11 colleges: the colleges of Liberal Arts and Sciences, Business, Dentistry, Education, Engineering, Law, Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy and Public Health, and the Graduate College. The University also provides on-campus and distance learning opportunities through its division of Continuing Education.

Long recognized as one of the nation's leading centers for the arts, creative writing, space physics, hydraulics, basic health and science research, and communication studies, the University of Iowa is also developing new strengths in informatics, nanoscience, simulation technology, and other fields.

The University of Iowa has maintained its tradition as an innovator with its pioneering work in speech pathology, science and medicine. It's also known internationally for being home of one of the nation's largest public university owned hospitals.

Cultural DIVERSITY at the University of Iowa

The University of Iowa has worked hard to assure that students of all races, creeds, and backgrounds are represented in the student body. In the past five years, Iowa has moved aggressively towards its goal of creating communities of African American, Hispanic/Latino (a), Asian American, and Native American students, and making the University a stimulating, welcoming place.

The Center for Diversity and Enrichment is a coordinated university-wide resource for creating and maintaining this campus diversity and providing opportunities for all University students interested in other cultures. Scholarships, fellowships, and support programs help to make this possible. International Programs brings together scholars from around the world and UI students looking to expand their perspectives by studying abroad or exploring global issues on campus. International students at the University of Iowa represent more than 100 countries.

CONSIDER THE COMMUNITY

Some universities offer the large city atmosphere. Others offer the college town experience. The University of Iowa is uniquely situated to offer student athletes the very best of both of these different worlds.

Once the state capital, Iowa City is considered one of the truly great college towns in America. The city swells with excitement on game day when nearly 16,000 Hawkeye fans from across the state and Midwest converge on Carver-Hawkeye Arena to cheer the Hawkeyes to another victory.

Iowa City's downtown area is alive and thriving. Restaurants, shops and sidewalk cafes face onto pedestrian malls full of people watchers, street entertainers and food vendors.

Attractive in size and friendliness, Iowa City is big in the sense that it offers all the advantages and conveniences of much larger metropolitan areas like summer and permanent employment opportunities, live entertainment and concerts, fine dining and shopping, industry and commerce.

Iowa City is located in the heart of eastern Iowa, within easy driving distance of several major Midwestern cities including the state capital, Des Moines, as well as Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, Minneapolis and Milwaukee.

"Iowa City is unlike any other place in the state, both because of its regional beauty and because of its independent, serendipitous spirit."

"There's nothing like feeling the crisp air as one tours the Big Ten campus, just as there's no other feeling like walking the shores along Lake MacBride, north of town. This is an ideal location for a weekend trip filled with sights, sounds, shopping and plenty of activities on any given weekend."

A CAMPUS ON THE MOVE

The University of Iowa campus caters to pedestrians and bicyclists; it's compact enough to cross in a 20-minute walk. A free ride on a campus bus can cut that time in half. Entertainment on campus and in Iowa City is geared toward student budgets, with many events offered at no charge. The University of Iowa offers more than 400 student organizations, extensive recreation facilities, 50 fraternities and sororities, and a broad schedule of arts performances, lectures, cultural celebrations and club sports and intramural athletic contests to go along with the intercollegiate competition within the Big Ten Conference.

STUDENT-ORIENTED NIGHT LIFE

Iowa's campus is set right in the city's downtown area, where you'll find dance clubs, movies, coffeehouses, and restaurants to suit every taste. Live music can be found any night of the week in clubs and restaurants, even outside on warm evenings on the downtown pedestrian mall. Iowa City businesses are convenient and geared toward student tastes and needs.

CONSIDER THE OPPORTUNITY FOR A QUALITY EDUCATION

A quality education is one of the highest priorities at the University of Iowa. Just over 90 percent of Johnson County residents have graduated from high school, and in Iowa City nearly half of all residents have earned bachelor's degrees. In fact, census statistics indicate Johnson County is the 10th "smartest" county in the nation, based on percentage of residents holding bachelor's degrees.

The University of Iowa represents a strong presence in the community while enhancing the quality of life in Iowa City.

Your aspiration may be a career in medicine, law or education. Regardless of the specific career field, it's important to identify the college baseball program that places a high priority on academics and allows you to take full advantage of the tremendous educational opportunities available.

At the University of Iowa, student-athletes learn quickly that academic success is the highest priority.

ATHLETICS AND ACADEMICS

At The University of Iowa, a strong relationship has been developed between athletics and academics, where coaches and athletes work hand-in-hand with academic deans and professors, assuring the student-athlete the best possible opportunities to excel in the classroom and in athletics.

From the first visit for any prospective student-athlete, to the completion of their academic and athletic career at Iowa, academic personnel play a large role in the career of Hawkeye student-athletes. Beginning with the on-campus visits, student-athletes are introduced to professors in their selected field of study, and are able to establish a relationship and develop an understanding of the academic setting in which they will be involved.

THE RUSSELL AND ANN GERDIN ATHLETIC LEARNING CENTER

The University of Iowa Russell and Ann Gerdin Athletic Learning Center opened in the fall of 2003. The Learning Center is a multi-level, 20,000-square foot facility, which provides one all-purpose area for the academic pursuits for Iowa's male and female student-athletes. The facility is centrally located on the UI campus for easy access by all student-athletes and staff.

The Learning Center features an auditorium, two classrooms, study lounges for freshmen and upper-class student-athletes, a computer lab, a teaching lab, the athletic library, office space for Iowa's Academic Student Services staff and a display area to recognize the academic accomplishments of Iowa's student-athletes.

When a student-athlete considers his future, he should consider prospects beyond soccer. They should consider where he wants to be five, 10, 15 years from today, and the best course of action for getting there. Also, they should decide early on to commit to excellence in every challenge undertaken.

Without a doubt, the men and women listed here took time to consider their future and the ways to get there. These former University of Iowa undergraduates have gone on to become leaders in their chosen fields. They also pursued their academic studies as strongly as the Iowa Hawkeyes athletes' career.

THE HAWKEYE NICKNAME

The University of Iowa borrowed its athletic nickname from the state of Iowa many years ago. The name Hawkeye was originally the name of the hero in the fictional novel, The Last of the Mohicans, written by James Fenimore Cooper. Cooper had the Delaware Indians bestow the name on a white scout who lived with them.

In 1838, 12 years after the book was published, people in the territory of Iowa acquired the nickname, chiefly through the efforts of Judge David Rorer of Burlington and James Edwards of Fort Madison.

Edwards, editor of the Fort Madison Patriot, moved his paper to Burlington in 1843 and renamed it the Burlington Hawkeye. The two men continued their campaign to popularize the name, and territorial officials eventually gave it their formal approval.

HERKY THE HAWKEYE

The Hawkeye nickname gained a tangible symbol in 1948 when a cartoon character, later to be named Herky the Hawkeye was hatched. The creator was Richard Spencer III, instructor of journalism at Iowa.

The impish Hawk was an immediate hit and acquired a name through a statewide contest staged by the athletic department. John Franklin, a Belle Plaine alumnus, was the man who suggested Herky.

Since his birth more than 45 years ago, Herky has symbolized Iowa athletics and epitomized University life. He even donned a military uniform during the Korean War and became the insignia of the 124th Fighter Squadron.

During the mid-1950s, Herky came to life at a football game as the Iowa mascot. Since that time, Herky has been a familiar figure at Iowa athletics events.
